Ignace Kroos acts for many clients on a wide variety of business, commercial, transport (sea, inland navigation, road, customs, ...) and trade matters, including dispute resolution, litigation, casualties, corporate sales, transactions, acquisitions, joint ventures, leases and commercial work.

His clients include commercial, transport and trade intermediaries, commodity traders, and a broad spectrum of Belgian and international companies whom he advises and assists in relation to all aspects of business, transport, corporate, leasing and commercial issues.

Primarily he is a tactical litigator, through Court proceedings and alternative dispute resolution, including negotiated settlement, but he also regularly advises on the drafting of contracts on various commercial matters.

Ignace joined Caluwaerts Uytterhoeven after almost five years in the transport and commercial department of a leading Antwerp Maritime law firm.

Following testimonial is worth sharing:

"Caluwaerts Uytterhoeven provides legal service in transport-related matters, including maritime law, logistics, land and air transport, as well as customs and excise tax. Ignace Kroos is recommended" - Legal 500.
